

Advertisements about businesses involved in DEQ Too™

This page contains the actual advertising currently in use by Device-Use Businesses/Hosts. It is meant to provide examples to Hosts that are considering providing advertising about DEQ Too. It is not meant as a means to advertise to the public; which is why it is within the Business Portal and not the home page.

Per the T&C, all advertising must be approved by DEQ in advance. As such, there will be common language seen or heard in advertising that DEQ requires per the T&C. Beyond that, it is the responsibility of Hosts to ensure they are not infringing on any copyrights of other companies and not plagiarizing.

As of the day advertisement links were added to this page, DEQ had approved of the ads. Existing advertising is reviewed periodically to ensure it continues to follow the T&C and has not been changed without DEQ pre-approval. If there are any ads that do not appear to be following the T&Cs, please let DEQ know at DEQToo@deq.state.or.us
